Hello,

Please move forward with your case against Microsoft. How is it that after a settlement is reached with Microsoft over their acknowledged monopoly - that they can turn around and propose a measure that would allow them to donate millions of dollars worth of microsoft software to schools? This is ludicrous! An in-depth investigation should be put forward to discuss all of their illegal activities not just browser issues.

Consumers should have more than one operating system to choose from, yet if Microsoft continues to rule without any regulation we will not have a choice and that is a bleak future for all consumers.

best,
